

JENNIE ROFF
ABOUT 1858 – FEBRUARY 14, 1883

Jennie Cannon Roff was born about 1858 in Tennessee. A birth record in Tennessee was not found

Jennie Clark was married to Ben (C.B. as shown on her headstone) Roff on December 30, 1877 in Fannin County, Texas.

The 1880 Census Records, records Jennie Roff living in Precinct 5, Grayson County, Texas along with her husband C. B. 23, and son, Bruce, 1. The Census Records, records that the occupation of C. B. Roff was engineer. This is a white family.

In 1886, 1890, 1893 and 1894, Ben Roff is listed on the Grayson County Tax Assessment Rolls. In 1883 Ben Rofs is shown on the Tax Assessment Rolls for Cherokee County, Texas. He was not living on any of these properties, just apparently owned them

W. Bruce Roff was married to L. Isabelle Millard October 7, 1913 in New York. The marriage record cites that his parents were Ben Roff and Jennie Cannon.

The New York 1915 Census Records, records W. Bruce Roff is living in Barton, Tioga, New York, and he is living with his in-laws.

On Find a Grave a posting for Ben Roff shows that he was born November 30, 1856 and died July 4, 1908 and is buried in Harvard, Delaware.

Because Jennie Roff died before the 1890 Census Records, there were no records found for her being a resident of Tarrant County, Texas only of Grayson County, Texas in 1880 Census Records.

